Comments:

Pitt Law does not release the academic ranking of its students. Students are not permitted to estimate class rank on their resumes. Students may list their numeric Q.P.A. and/or their letter grade average (e.g. B+) on their resume. Students may not list more than one grade (e.g., B/B-), but may list only the one letter grade that reflects their average (e.g., B-). Students may consult the grade distribution charts, prepared by the Registrar's Office, to determine whether they fall into an employer's class rank cutoff or preference (e.g., top 25%). - See more at:

Other Interview Programs

Loyola Patent Interview Program: a 2-day interview program held in Chicago each summer that brings together patent law employers and law students from across the country to interview for summer associate positions and post-graduate employment. For more information regarding this program, please visit: http://www.luc.edu/law/career/patent_students.html. Equal Justice Works Conference and Career Fair: The Equal Justice Works annual Conference and Career Fair is the largest national public interest career fair in the country. More than 1,200 students from 165 law schools attend for the 2-days of interviews, workshops, networking and other career opportunities. Public interest employers conduct interviews for internships and full-time positions and meet with students for informational "table talk" settings to discuss public interest careers and job search advice, resume and cover letter review, mock interviews and more. For more information regarding the Conference and Career Fair visit:

<http://equaljusticeworks.org/law-school/conference-and-careerfair>. The Student Professional Development Fund offers funds to qualified law students who seek to attend professional development events. The fund has been modified to cover attendance at virtual events.

Diversity Interview Programs

Pitt Law participates in the Allegheny County Bar Association's Summer Clerkship Program, the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD), as well as the Just The Beginning Foundation Judicial Internship/Clerkship Program. Student groups offer professional development programming through panel discussions and mentoring partnerships with area practitioners to foster networking opportunities. Pitt Law also publicizes to its students many other diversity programs offered regionally and nationally including the Lavender Law Conference and Career Fair for LGBT students and allies. Affinity groups from the Allegheny County Bar Association visit campus and engage with our students on professional development as well as issues that face their respective communities. These include attorneys from the Homer S. Brown Division, the LGBT Rights Committee, the Committee on Law & Disability, Asian Attorneys Committee, Diversity Collaborative Committee, Gender Equality Committee, Hispanic Attorneys Committee and the Women in the Law Division. The Student Professional Development Fund offers funds to qualified law students who seek to attend professional development events and career fairs located a minimum distance of 50 miles from the law school, this year the fund will also cover attendance at virtual events.

For Employers who do not interview students on-campus, will you:

send, upon request, one package containing resumes/transcripts? Yes post a notice directing students to apply directly to employer? Yes

Alumni are eligible to use Pitt Law Works, the online job posting site. Employers may call, fax or email job postings to the Professional Development Office at pdo@pitt.edu or may create an employer account and post jobs directly to Pitt Law Works at <https://law-pitt.12twenty.com/hire>. Jobs are typically posted for sixty (60) days but may be removed if the position is filled or extended as needed. The Professional Development Office can also email alumni who may be interested in an employer's position. Employers must allow extra time for this service. Employers should contact PDO@pitt.edu if they have questions or need assistance.

Are employers permitted to prescreen? Yes

First Year Students

First year students are eligible for Spring OCI. Job notices for first-year students may be posted at any time. Typically job notices are posted at the beginning of the spring semester as soon as classes resume.
